

WCA Classic Field Events

1. Purpose

The WCA will hold three (3) Classic Field Events each year. These events will be similar to the National Field Trial and will be held in three different geographical areas of the United States.

2. Events

The Western Classic is to be held in early to mid-spring.

The Eastern Classic is to be held in mid-spring to late spring.

The Mid-America Classic is to be held in the fall.

It is suggested that the Western and Eastern Classic dates be coordinated to maximize attendance at both events.

A WCA Field Futurity will be held in conjunction with the Western and Eastern Classics.

Classic Field Events will be “OPEN to WEIMARANERS ONLY”

All Classic Field Events shall be AKC licensed and conducted under the latest version of the AKC Field Trial Rules and Procedures. Additional WCA rules are stated within this set of rules. (For the Field Futurity Rules, see the Dual Futurity and Maturity Program Rules.)

3. Host Club

- a. The Classic Events are WCA events that are hosted by a local Weimaraner Club or by an individual WCA member in good standing with the WCA.
- b. The Field Trial Chairperson, Secretary and ALL members of the Field Trial Committee must be members in good standing of the WCA.
- c. When an individual hosts a WCA Classic Field Trial, 50% of the financial gain from the event shall be donated to an organization designated by the Classic host and approved by the WCA Board that will promote the Weimaraner and 50% shall be donated to the WCA. The Classic host will submit a financial statement. In the event of a loss, the Classic host may submit a request to the WCA Board for reimbursement of the loss. Financial statements and the reasons for the loss will accompany the request for reimbursement. The WCA Board will then decide on the amount of reimbursement, if any.

4. Approvals

The Field Committee will approve and forward the Classic application to the WCA Board of Directors and WCA Executive Secretary for final approval and processing with AKC.

 - 1. The WCA will contribute $500 to clubs holding a Grand Amateur Limited All Age Stake.
- h. The WCA Classic may have multiple courses in use at any time at the option of the Host Club.

6. Judges

- a. The Host Club shall select all judges for their WCA Classic event.
- b. An Individual hosting a Classic shall obtain approval of the judges from the Field Committee.
- c. Classic Hosts shall endeavor to obtain the judicial services of candidates possessing the broadest possible previous judicial experience.

7. Retrieving Call Backs

- a. Any mature, strong-flying upland game bird shall be satisfactory for utilization in callbacks, with strong preference to be given to pheasants or chukar.
- b. Birds shall be planted in the birdfield as the judges shall direct.
- c. Birds should be planted a sufficient distance from the gallery/spectators so as to minimize interference with the dog's performance and to maximize gunner safety.
- d. Gunners shall use only double-barreled shotguns of at least .20 gauge; semi-automatic and pump shotguns are prohibited.
- e. During callbacks, blaze orange shall be worn by all judges, handlers, gunners and the game steward.

8. Scribe/Photographer

- a. The scribe(s) will prepare a brace-by-brace write up for the WCA Western, Eastern or Mid-America Grand Open All Age Classic or Open All Age Classic and Amateur Gun Dog Classic.
- b. The write up shall include the placements of all of the other stakes and a brace-by-brace write up shall be optional.

- c. Photographs of all placements, in all stakes, should be taken. The photos should include the dogs, their handlers, judges and the owners, if available.
- d. The write up and photos shall be submitted to The Weimaraner Magazine editor within 30 days of the last day of the Classic. Failure to meet this time frame may subject the Host Club to fines imposed by the WCA Board.
- e. To have the highest picture quality and the least number of errors in the text, the photos should be at least 150 dpi and the text should be sent by e-mail or disk in Rich Text (RTF) format.

9. AKC Application and Premium List

- a. The application information for the Classic event needs to be sent to the WCA Executive Secretary at least four (4) months prior to the event. The Executive Secretary will fill out the AKC forms and send same to the AKC with the appropriate fee for their approval. The Executive Secretary will arrange for the Premium List to be prepared.
- b. Any WCA rule that is in addition to the AKC rules shall be included within the premium. Also, any options that the AKC rules allow need to be stated. Topics for inclusion include:
